Future Teachers
Chapter Honors
Dean Hostetler

Cedarville college's Future Teachers of America held an inspiring meeting in the chapel at the college Wednesday evening. The address of the evening was by J. E. Balmer, vocational-agricultural supervisor at the OSSO home, Xenia.

In honor of the late Prof. Hostetler, dean of education at the college, the chapter has been named "A. J. Hostetler Chapter." The dean, beloved at the college by faculty and students, was injured fatally in a highway accident in February.

President Vayhinger presented the chapter charter to President Rollis Barton, chapter president, at the meeting. Other officers are William Trout, vice president; Miss Kathleen Evans, secretary; and Miss Marie Fisher, treasurer.

Mrs. J. T. Frame
Passes Away
On Tuesday

Mrs. Mary Jane Frame, 85, widow of John T. Frame, and who made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Garret Patton, Xenia, died Tuesday at 11:30 p. m. in failing health a year, she had been seriously ill a week.

The daughter of William and Margaret Roush Jasper, she was born in Lawrence county May 10, 1863, but had resided in Xenia since 1941. Mr. Frame died Nov. 8, 1941. She was a member of the Grape Grove Church of Christ.

Besides her daughter, Mrs. Patton, she is survived by the following children: Thomas and Amos R., Cedarville; James, Delaware, Ohio; George, Cedarville; Millard, Spring Valley, and Mrs. Cora E. Hosking, Glendale, Calif. Two sons, William J. and Roy, preceded her in death. She also leaves 15 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Services will be held at the Neeld funeral home Saturday at 10 a. m., with burial at Grape Grove, Friends may call at the funeral home Friday from 7 to 9 p. m.

Nursing Contest
Begins This Week at Schools

Southwestern Ohio high schools will assist in publishing the "Careers in Nursing" contest, which begins this week. High schools in this area have been supplied with posters giving detailed information on the contest and official entry blanks, according to word received from contest headquarters in Cincinnati.

The contest, which is open to high school girls of the southwestern Ohio area only, offers prizes totaling $1,000 for the best entries of 100 words or less completing the statement, "I would like to be a nurse because" First prize for the contest is $350; second prize, $225; third prize, $125; with 5 fourth prizes of $20 each. In addition, each week during the four weeks of the contest, ten prizes of $5 each will be awarded.

The "Careers in Nursing" contest is sponsored by the southwestern district council of the United Hospital association, a organization representing the non-profit hospitals of southwestern Ohio. Virtually all high schools in the southwestern Ohio area are cooperating in publishing the contest.

High school girls wishing to enter the contest may secure official entry blanks and contest rules at their high school. Entries may also be made on plain paper, giving the name, address, age, school and class year of the entrant.

Auditor's Son
Named Clerk

Norman F. Huston, Xenia, settlement clerk in the county auditor's office since December, has resigned, and Arthur Curlett, son of Auditor and Mrs. James J. Curlett, Xenia, has been employed as his successor.

Mr. Huston's resignation was effective last Thursday and he has taken a position as salesman for the Chenoweth Motor company. He began that position Monday.

CLIFTON
J. B. Rife, of Clifton, and Columbus underwent a major operation at University hospital on Tuesday of this week.

Dr. and Mrs. John W. Bickett, of Clifton, were in Columbus last Tuesday, visiting friends at University. Mr. Bickett and Grant hospitals. In the latter, J. P. Watt, past master of the Greenfield office and brother of Mrs. Bickett, is a patient.

Rev. and Mrs. Malcolm Harris returned late last week from a visit in Crawfordsville, Ind.

State Is to Improve Roads

The State Department of Highways is advertising in this issue of the Journal for bids for the improvement of about seven miles of road near Jamestown. One section of nearly five miles is in Jefferson and Silvercreek townships, and the other in Bowserville and Jefferson townships. The resurfacing is to be 18 feet in width, blacktop.

Bids are to be received until May 11. These improvements, plus about 16 miles of similar improvement in Clinton county, is estimated to cost $56,331.80.

Jacket-Xavier
Game Ends in Forfeit Tuesday

Xavier university turned a 1-0 defeat into a 9-0 beating by the local college nine Tuesday afternoon by protesting a called strike by Umpire Bill Kaylor too strongly.

The Yellow Jackets were leading by the one-run margin at the end of seven innings when the argument, which halted the game for forfeit, began. Marcus Townsend, bludgeoned by the visiting team, which boasted of two victories in three games with Notre Dame. He let them down with two hits and appeared to be able to keep them from the home plate had the contest been finished over the return game.

Coch George Hiatt of the Xavier team told Cedarville Coach Mendell E. Beattie after the game that "it wouldn't be necessary for Cedarville to come to Cincinnati for the scheduled return game."

It appeared that the Cincinnati team couldn't face a defeat from a small school nine after having whipped the Fighting Irish. Hiatt gave no other reason except the umpire's decision for cancelling the game.

Townsend pitched a superb game to make a tainted first inning run by the local stars. His strike out of Xavier's cleanup hitter with the bags loaded in the fifth inning was the highlight of the contest. Burger's first inning single with one out led to the score. The swift center fielder stole second after Moler had struck out, then came home when Utah's towering windblown popfly was dribbled out of the second baseman's hands for an error.

It was the third win of four games for the locals. They have another home game Saturday, facing University of Dayton.

New Election
Law to Affect
Local Students

Cedarville college students, who enrolled since January 1 and those who have never voted before, will be affected by a new election law enacted last year by the Ohio legislature, according to an opinion rendered by County Prosecutor Marcus Shoup.

The prosecutor, by not considering the law retroactive, wrote: "It is apparent, under the wording provisions of this section, that it shall only affect such persons who have commenced attendance at such institutions from and after the effective date of such statute, but does not have application to such persons who hold the legal residence requirements, that is residence, within the state of Ohio for one year of the county 40 days and of the voting precinct 40 days, which is, of course, the law pertaining to the qualification of all voters."

Prosecutor Shoup, in complying with a request by the board of elections for an interpretation of the law, continued, "It is, accordingly, my opinion that section . . . has no application to those persons attending such institutions of higher learning who have previously qualified and are registered as voters or possess the required voting qualifications in unregistered areas."

Thus, under Mr. Shoup's ruling, Cedarville college students who meet residence requirements and have voted prior to January 1, in those communities retain their balloting rights there.

Fate of Greene County Cancer
Clinic Hinges On Donations To ACS

The fate of Greene county's cancer detection clinic hinges on the success of the current fund drive of the county unit of the American Cancer society.

It was the money raised in a similar drive last year that financed the operation of the bi-weekly clinic at Xenia's city hall by the public health department.

It will be the money raised in the April appeal this year that will keep it going past August 1 . . . if it is sufficient to guarantee continuance. Thus the future of the clinic rests with the generosity of Greene county citizens whose generosity, a year ago, made it possible.

The Greene county unit has been proud to be the newest unit in the country to get a clinic under way. Dr. Reid Joyce, Dayton

Stop Burning 'Em Down Would Help Lick Shortage

Chairman Joseph B. Hall of the Ohio fire safety committee says he knows of one way to help lick the housing shortage.

He would stop burning down the houses we already have.

"Enough houses were destroyed or damaged by fire in America in 1947 to house almost the entire population of Cleveland," he says. "And one of the major causes of home fires is simply slovenly housekeeping. When you see a pile of rubbish, you can be sure fire will be attracted to it sooner or later," Hall says.

"The loves public."

Fire attacked 300,000 American homes last year and burned up enough additional timber and lumber to build 200,000 five-room houses, according to statistics of the National Fire Protection association, cited by Hall.

Park Board
Perfects Plans
At Meeting

The Community park board met Monday evening in the shelter house at the park. Plans were laid for installation of a tennis court, softball diamond, horse-shoe court and archery, thus providing varied recreational resources for people of all ages.

Work is to begin soon on these plans, and a full program carried out to make Community park a real recreational center for everybody in Cedarville and community.

It is stressed by the board that, though the project was sponsored by the American Legion and the Progressive club, the park is to be for the use of everybody, and clubs, organizations and societies, as well as individuals, families and all groups in the neighborhood, are invited and urged to make the park their recreational home.

The shelter house is now completed. It is to be rented for small fee to groups that may want to use it at any time, the board announces.

Though the building is completed, furniture is needed to equip it, and the board will welcome donations of furniture suitable for the needs of the building, or cash, if a friend prefers to pay money rather than donate furniture.

As soon as possible, the board states, a kitchen will be installed in the shelter house. Outside ovens are being built to be used for outdoor cooking.

"Remember, this is everybody's park," a member of the board said to the Herald, "and we want the people to realize what the sponsors had in mind when they started the project." It is hoped that family reunions will be a feature of park events when the first children season opens.

Already passersby are admiring the new sign, "Community Park," recently erected. "And that sign means what it says," the board member smiled.

The inter-city baseball season opens with the Cedarville community park, when Cedarville plays Jamestown. Though it is announced as a "practice game," village rivalry between the neighboring towns will make the game interesting.

Former Pupils To Honor Miss Elwell

On Thursday evening, April 29, the former pupils of Miss Jean B. Elwell will gather in the Jean B. Elwell auditorium in Xenia to pay tribute to their nonagenarian school teacher who reached 93 years of age on March 20.

A special feature of the program, which is being arranged by the Business and Professional Women's club, will be the rebroadcast of the records of the Reader's Digest story about Miss Elwell. The Hallmark Co., of Kansas City, Mo., had Miss Ethel Barrymore dramatize this story recently over WHIO. Miss Elwell being represented as a "Miss Jennings now living in a small midwestern town."

Music for the evening will be under the direction of Mrs. Joanne R. Fultz. Mrs. Clara Reutinger will act as mistress of ceremonies. R. Hayes Hamilton, who procured the transcription from the Columbia Broadcasting company in New York, will lead the presentation remarks. After the broadcast over a loudspeaker by Harry Hagler, former pupils will be called upon to relate experiences while attending school with Miss Elwell as their teacher.

This program is open to the public and to all and any former pupils who might be residing in Greene county. It will begin at 8 p. m.

On the School Scene

By JANET HULL

"Loveliest of trees, the cherry now is hung with bloom along the bough.

And stands about the woodland ride, Wearing white for Easteride."

At this season of the year one need only step into the out-of-doors to be reminded of these words of the English poet, A. E. Housman, in his poem, "Loveliest of Trees."

Perhaps, too, if you are in a thoughtful mood, you will recall the other stanzas of the poem. If you are impressed with nature's lovely scenes all about you, you will agree with the poet's sentiment that a "lifetime of springs" is all too short a time in which to enjoy them.

While many people travel far in quest of beauty, these spring days there is lovely scenery everywhere about us to be enjoyed, without effort, without cost, on our part.

Take Aptitude Tests

Vocational aptitude tests were given to all members of the Junior class Monday and Tuesday. These tests indicate special interests of students, and they help to determine the vocation that each pupil would be best fitted to follow after graduation.

The range of aptitudes tested were: mechanical, computational, scientific, persuasive, artistic, literary, musical, social service and clerical abilities. A profile chart was made by each pupil indicating the extent of his ability in each of these areas of interest.

Miss Hanna will hold a conference with each pupil who took the test, consulting with him in the interpretation of his profile chart, and regarding training requirements of the various occupations in the field of his interest.

The charts will then become a part of the permanent office records of each pupil for future reference.

"A Date With Judy"

Rehearsals are progressing for the performance of "A Date With Judy," a three-act comedy to be presented at Cedarville at the new house, Friday, May 7, by the senior class.

Judy, portrayed by Norma Wells, is a very impressionable teen-age miss. Bob Longabaugh plays the role of Mr. Foster, Judy's father.

Mrs. Foster, Judy's mother, is Beverly Carzoo. Randolph, Judy's brother, who has a scuffle scene of humor, is Henry Beattie. The part of Hannah, the maid who manages the Foster household, is played by Kathleen Adams. One of Judy's girl friends, though not so aggressive as Beverly, is Winnie, who is Clara Mossman. Oogie Pringle, a tall, gangly boy whose ideal is Judy, is Bill Purdom. Mitzie Hoffman (Mary Louise Stormont) is another of Judy's girl friends, wears the latest styles whether they be come her or not. Ralph Spracklen plays the part of Mr. Martin, a theatrical producer. The laundry woman, Mrs. Hotchkiss, is portrayed by Marie Carroll. Elsie Hotchkiss, her daughter, is played by Phyllis Baldwin. Mrs. Shultzhammer, of the P.T. A., is Betty Spence. A new boy in town, Rexford Meredith O'Connor, is Roger Charles. Susie, Rex's kid sister is Irma Jean Glanville.

To see these players in action, be sure to make "A Date With Judy" for Friday, May 7, in the opera house.

Mother-Daughter Banquet

The F. H. A. mother-daughter dinner will be held in the high school cafeteria, Friday, April 23, at 7 o'clock.

Track Events Soon

Spring track preliminaries will be held at Beaver, Thursday, April 23. On this occasion the boys will have the hope to "run their way" into the main meet at Beaver track, April 30.

Baseball Games Scheduled

A baseball game between the Cedarville "Indians" and Catholic Central of Springfield is slated for action this Friday, April 23, at the Indians' diamond.

Two games will be played next week with Jeffersonville, on Monday, the 29th and Wednesday, the 28th. The following week a game will be held with the Beavers on May 4.

Plan Field Trip

Thursday, April 29, members of the chemistry class, and also pupils who plan to enroll in physics class next year, will go to Miami, Fla., for a tour of the atomic energy plant. The new plant located in that town is a division of the Monsanto Chemical corporation.

Vo-Ag Boys Visit Plant

Last Tuesday the Vo-Ag class made its first visit of factories and business houses on the summer schedule of field trips.

Their tour of Folke's meat packing plant proved very successful, as the boys arrived there in time to see a shipment of hogs brought into the yards, and they were able to watch the complete process of handling the farmer's livestock after he markets them.

With favorable weather for the past few days, work on the athletic bleachers is now advancing. The boys are busy on the second row of blocks. Because of the de-

Doc Evans to Be Honored
By Ohio State

When photographs of five Ohio State university graduates are added to the department of animal husbandry's hall of fame next month, a Ross township farmer will be among them.

R. R. 2, a breeder of Hampshire swine, was one of five Ohio farmers named Tuesday to receive the honor. Mr. Evans is a graduate of the class of 1939.

Others are William B. Murray, "Wells," a breeder of Percherons and standard bred horses; Paul W. Teegardin, Ashville, breeder of polled short-horned cattle and Berkshire swine; Farrell M. Shultz, Degraff, breeder of Shropshire sheep, and W. Robert Lewis, Wilmington, breeder of Hampshire swine.

The men will be honored May 3 at the third annual hall of fame banquet. Announcement of the selection was made by Prof. D. J. Kays, department chairman, who is in charge of the program.

Photographs of the five will be hung in the hall of fame gallery along with pictures of the two other alumni selected in previous years. They are Charles Snyder, Chicago, editor of the Corn Belt Dailies, who was selected in 1943, and C. R. Conklin, of Brandon, Va., secretary of the American Ayrshire Breeders association, who was selected in 1946.

Speaker at the ceremonies at which the five honored alumni will be presented will be President Emeritus W. C. Coffey of the University of Minnesota.

Trio Break Out of County Jail Tuesday

Three prisoners of the county jail made good an escape Tuesday night by sawing a bar off a 14-foot high window and crawling through a small hole in a ventilating system attached to the outside of the window.

The three men were Emerson Browder, 30, and Raymond Browder, 25, Negro brothers from Xenia, and Zettie Atkins, 21, Wright View Heights, formerly of South Solon. No trace of the men was found Wednesday, although the break was believed to have been discovered shortly after the last of the trio fled.

MUSICAL REHEARSAL

The Woman's society of the Methodist church will hold a market Saturday afternoon, May 8, in the clerk's office.

First Greene County Band Festival Attracts 1,200 at Xenia Field House

More than 1,200 patrons attended a concert by an all-county band of 140 musicians at the field house in Xenia Saturday night climaxing an all-day Greene county band festival in which nine high school music departments of the county participated.

As a result of the success of the festival, plans already have been started to arrange a similar event in 1949 in response to numerous requests that the festival be an annual affair.

The day's program opened at 9 a. m. when the all-county band met with Manley R. Whitcomb, guest conductor, of Ohio State university, for its final rehearsal. In the afternoon, concerts were presented by each band. They were as follows: Xenia Central Robert K. Downs, director; Cedarville, Mrs. Mildred Foster, director; OSSO Home, George W. Schumacher, director; Sugar-creek township, Mrs. Meredith Brown, director; Xenia East, Louis H. Rhodes, director; Yellow Springs Bryan, Miss Charlotte Mendel, director; Silvercreek, James Steel, director; Jefferson,

JOINT MEETING

The Community park board has called a joint meeting of the American Legion and Progressive club at the shelter house in the park for Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Cunningham to Speak at Forum

John F. Cunningham, former dean of agriculture at Ohio State university and at present chairman of the resources council of the Mississippi Valley association, will discuss "The Citizens Interest in Soil Conservation" April 26 at the Farm Forum.

Conner Merritt, of Ross township, will present a vocal solo, and Dean Gordin a piano solo.

Arnett Gordin and Albert Wigal, from Ross township are program chairman for the April meeting.

New Officers
Installed by Scout Council

Mrs. George Gibson, Xenia, was installed as president of the Greene county Girl Scout council, succeeding Mrs. Robert W. MacGregor, Cedarville, at a luncheon for council members, troop leaders and mothers of scouts at Geyer's restaurant Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. MacGregor conducted the installation. Other new officers are: Mrs. Paul Targart, Fairfield, vice president; Mrs. Edward Dykstra, Yellow Springs, secretary, and Miss Josephine Wolf, Xenia, treasurer.

Mrs. MacGregor, a psychologist at the OSSO home, was guest speaker and stressed the importance of scouting in a child's training. A playlet was presented by members of the Girl Scout troop 13, Knollwood, of which Mrs. John Zimmerman is leader and Mrs. Earl Smart, assistant.

Mrs. Frank Creswell, Cedarville, and Mrs. Marvallen Hubbard, Xenia, were appointed to the nominating committee for the coming year. Mrs. John Scott, Knollwood, was in charge of arrangements for the luncheon at which 55 members and guests were present.

Indians Blast Out 10-1 Win Over Bryan

Cedarville high school's newly-named Indians ripped out a decisive 10-1 win last Thursday over Yellow Springs Bryan in the opening baseball game of the season for the Indians.

Sophomore Norman Grindle gave up only three hits in going the distance for Coach Clyde Walker's charges. Paul Vest was his catcher. He got good support from his teammates who committed only one error behind him. Grindle struck out nine Bryan batsmen and walked four.

The Indians, champions of the county, who will enter district play at Dayton next month, got six hits, four of them extra-base swats. They combined them with four Bryan errors and five walks for their scores.

Cedarville got off to a two-run lead in the first inning, then scored three in the fourth and fifth to take a big 8-0 lead. Bryan's single tally came in the sixth after which the Indians retaliated with two more in the seventh.

Donny Reed got the longest hit of the game when he pounded a ball over a railroad track in right field. He was held to a double by ground rule limitations. Don Heidorn had a double also, and Bill Fife and Melvin Tackett got triples.

STASSEN IS A FACTOR

Come what may in the various state primaries, Harold Stassen must be reckoned with as a GOP candidate for the presidency. His showing in Wisconsin makes that certain. Observers note, however, that Wisconsin, with its liberal and nonconformist so far as party allegiance goes, was a rich field for the youthful ex-governor of a neighboring state. The younger Stassen's career, political and military, fits him for recognition at least, and there is evidence that he will get considerable.

THE BIG, BAD WOLF

A black-mustached, strutting, sword-rattling militarist in far-off Russia has us trembling in our boots. We are "skert" of him! He may take away from us our liberty and our freedom. Let's mow him down! But meanwhile, what about the big, bad wolf here at home—the heavy-eyed, bad boy who plays truant from school and won't stay after school to be punished? What about our own defiant, amoral, disobedient, trouble-maker? Just whom are we so much afraid of?

WILL JOHN L. CONTROL IT?

Look for the manufacture of gasoline and oil from coal. It is not far away. Supplies of oil are said to be getting scarcer and scarcer. But oil and gasoline made from coal is in sight for 150,000 years, scientists say. But the coal will have to be mined. Will John L. Lewis permit it? Don't laugh. Maybe he won't.

FARM INCOME

If you were asked what state stands first in value of farm products the chances are you would name the wrong one. To make it easier for you, Iowa was first in 1947, with California second. The standing in 1946 was the reverse. Most everybody thinks of California as a state that produces movies and divorces only. But the value of its farm products puts it right up at the top of the list every year. How about Ohio? Well, we Buckeyes hold our own—Ohio was 10th in 1946 and 10th in 1947. Sometimes Ohioans forget that their state is also one of the great industrial areas of the country.

IT IS PUZZLING

It is puzzling to contemplate our fear and our efforts to "stop Stalin" who is at least on the other side of the world, while right in our midst is John L. Lewis, with a stranglehold on the throats of everybody and everything in our country. Why not at least take turns ridding ourselves of our tormentors?

ON THE GROUND FLOOR

A couple of Pennsylvanians claim the moon by right of discovery and have demanded, by law, a deed for it. Their hurry is to get in before presidential candidates start claiming they'll carry it.

HE'S EXPERIENCED

Paul Hoffman has been named and approved as EAP administrator. Nobody has had more experience tinkering with a thing without knowing in which direction it was going.

ODOR NOT UNUSUAL

An anticommunist political rally in the old world weathered a stench-bomb disturbance. There is more than a hint that the rally threw the stench bomb. But with reds around folks get used to the odor of a stench bomb before it is thrown.

OH, FOR PEACEFUL USES!

From Oak Ridge a by-product of the atom bomb, radio-active iodine, is being sent to hospitals for treatment of goiter. Results are startlingly encouraging. Cures are almost the certain rule. What a godsend, if the A-bomb could serve only that sort of purpose!

DIESELS ARE TIMELY

Our railroads got delivery on diesels just in time to snicker at least up one sleeve at John L. Lewis. Men like John L. Lewis, powermad, never understand that even an essential industry can put itself out of business by making the public mad.

WE HELPED A LITTLE

Russian school textbooks make no reference to aid from the USA in the war, except to note that we developed scotch tape, which served many good purposes. The Russians might get all tangled up in it.

ANOTHER NEW FORD

A new Ford has been announced, and all of us are taking time out from our worry about the high cost of living and Russia and world war II to wonder what it's going to be like. As always, fantastic stories are going the rounds—a flat motor in the rear, like buses; a new look, and everything. Revolutionary designs and treatment of old principles are quite commonplace even now, since several manufacturers have turned to new styling. All this sets the people wondering what Ford's going to do.

Why not let the public handle the contempt case against John L. Lewis—they've really got it.

ZECHARIAH 1:1-4:1, 7-8. DEVOTIONAL READING: Psalm 24:1-6.

Zechariah Pleads For Righteousness

Lesson for April 25, 1948

ZECHARIAH almost certainly was born and reared in or near Babylon, and was trained for the priesthood and ordained of the Lord as a prophet. His father, Berechiah, was the son of Iddo, the prophet. Though much younger than Haggai, about whom we studied last Sunday, Zechariah began his ministry only two months later than Haggai—a ministry which was to summon the people to righteousness as a condition essential in the rebuilding of the temple and in cleansing themselves of idolatry, if they were to throw off the yoke of their feet. The student will need to read the entire Book of Zechariah to have the background for this lesson. Also Psalm 24:1-6.

LIVING TOGETHER IN GOD'S WAY
"TURN ye unto me, saith the Lord of hosts, and I will turn unto you," Zechariah 1:3. People cannot live together in peace and harmony until first they are on speaking terms with God. The insidious onslaught of secularism was weakening the Jews at the very moment when they needed to be strong and united for the task of rebuilding the temple and restoring their life in Jerusalem.

Read further into the prophecy of Zechariah and note the admonitions of the Lord for kindness and understanding and sincerity, which are the indispensable qualities of community life.

WHAT MAKES A PEOPLE GREAT?

ZECHARIAH reminds the people that the downfall of their fathers had been due to their forgetfulness of God. He calls them now to repentance of their own sins, that they become truly a great people. "Fear not, but let your hands be strong," Zechariah 4:13. "What makes a nation great—and strong?" Not brick, nor stone, nor wood, but justice, love and brotherhood.

Boys and girls will do well to look again at what this old prophet was saying. We long to see the United States a truly great nation. Then let us be strong in the Lord.

GOD HAS A STANDARD

READ chapter seven, verses 8-14, and 8:18-17, for some of the standards which God sets up for his people. "Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. Oppress not the widow, the orphan, the foreigner, or the poor, and never plot evil in your hearts against one another." Zechariah is here epitomizing the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount. All of which is to remind us today that we do not need new standards. We simply need to conform to God's eternal standards.

GOD IS TO BE SOUGHT UNTO

THE eight chapters of Zechariah have to do with the essential qualities of life if the people are to rebuild the temple. The last six chapters deal with the general standards of life which we must accept and strive to attain if we are to be well-pleasing unto him. I like the phrase of the fathers, "God is to be sought unto." And how are we to come into the presence of the Lord? "He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully," Psalms 24:4.

It was not enough to rebuild the temple. God wanted his people to become living stones of integrity and fidelity in the city of God.

This we shall attain only as we seek first the Kingdom of God and his righteousness—constantly seek this daily walk with the Lord, in the light of his word. "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

By the Bible

If we abide by the principles taught in the Bible, our country will go on prospering and to prosper; but if we and our posterity neglect its instructions and authority, no man can tell how sudden a catastrophe may overwhelm us and bury all our glory in profound obscurity.—Daniel Webster.

YOU PROFIT THREE WAYS with Electric Milking Machines

ALFRED DIETZ, dairy herdsman, looks on while an electric milking machine milks "Tina," one of the purebred registered Guernseys on F. R. Kuck's, Brookside Dairy Farm located near New Knoxville, Ohio.

save labor . . . increase production . . . cut bacteria counts

- Electric milking machines make it practical and profitable to operate a dairy farm such as Mr. Kuck's 300-acre Brookside Farm with fewer helpers than would otherwise be needed. Three milking machines enable herdsman Dietz to milk fifty-five cows twice a day with no outside help. It would take at least four men to milk this many cows by hand. Such a saving of labor is important at any time, but particularly nowadays when dependable farm help is so scarce.
- Besides doing away with considerable hard, tiresome work and freeing hours for proper care of the nationally famous Kuck herd of 200 Guernseys, electric milking machines increase milk production and materially lower the bacteria count, according to Mr. Dietz.

OTHER HELPFUL USES OF ELECTRICITY ON THE DAIRY FARM

- Electric pump and water system
- Electric water heater for proper care of utensils and equipment
- Automatic watering system with drinking cups in the dairy barn
- Electric milk cooler to chill milk quickly and keep it cool while waiting shipment

For additional information on electric helpers for the dairy farm, consult your County Agricultural Agent and the Farm Representative of The Dayton Power and Light Company serving your neighborhood.

To keep growing, keep learning.

ADULTS need Christian teaching—Study Christ's Word in church school.

B107-B

We believe that the only hope of the world is in Christian principles practiced in individual and group relationships. But from what source do we get our Christian principles and how do we learn to practice them in individual and group relationships?

We learn Christian principles as we study the Christian way of life. The church, through the Sunday school, helps adults learn how to practice Christian principles in individual and group relationships. There is no other agency devoted to this kind of teaching.

If adults come together in study groups under the direction of the church, they share with each other their understanding of Christianity. They develop the atmosphere conducive to spiritual growth. This Christian atmosphere can permeate their social, political and economic lives, as well as their religious views.

God can change individuals. As they seek to learn Christ's message for them, they will keep learning and growing. If enough adults would earnestly seek to live by the teaching of Christ, the world would be a different place in 1949. Come to Sunday school in the church of your choice next Sunday.

March Report of Testing Given by D. S. C.

With the end of three months of testing the Greene County Dairy Service Cooperative reports 17 D. H. I. A. and 6 owner sampler herds on test in the county. With a total of 326 cows, 271 in milk and 55 dry, the D. H. I. A. records show an average milk production of 522 pounds. The cow producing the most milk in the county gave 1945 pounds. The average butterfat production was 23.3 pounds and the high individual production 74.6. Eight cows were sold for beef. In owner sampler there were 70 cows on test, 50 in milk 14 dry. The average production of milk was 547 pounds and 22.4 pounds of butter fat.

Anyone who is interested in this service may call the county agent's office of Glenn Charles, the county tester.

Spring Garden School April 29—The Greene County Garden clubs and extension service are announcing their spring garden school to be held April 29, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.—registration 9 to 9:45—in the court house assembly room. All those who are interested are invited to attend.

Mrs. J. E. Funderburk, president of the Greene County Garden Club association, will preside at the meeting. Guest speakers will be Mrs. Helen Lawson, wild life conservation extensionist, and Victor Ries, extension floriculturist, from Ohio State university.

Chemicals May Help Control Locusts

The recommended method for preventing injury by the 17-year locust to young orchard trees has been to cover the trees with a wrapping of cheese cloth. According to entomologist C. R. Outright at the Ohio agricultural experiment station, this is an effective and practical remedy where only a few trees are involved but is laborious and expensive if many trees are to be protected.

Recent information indicates some of the new spray materials may be used effectively against this insect. Locusts were present in Missouri in 1947 and trials with chemicals, chlordane and benzene hexachloride, were made. Both chemicals showed promise, although chlordane seemed more effective.

CLARENCE J. BROWN Writes With a Buckeye In Congress

Notwithstanding the president's opposition, the house of representatives last Thursday almost unanimously voted to expand the size of the air forces to an over-all strength of seventy groups. The president had earlier disagreed with air forces Secretary Symington, who had joined the Republican leadership in supporting the 70 group air forces plan, and insisted that our air power consist of not over 55 groups. By a vote of 343 to 3 the measure to expand the air forces was passed by the house. As approved by the house, the bill calls for an expenditure of three billion one hundred ninety-eight million for planes, guided missiles, and aviation research.

As reported last week, the administration plan, to divide additional national defense appropriations on a pro-rata basis among existing units of the armed forces, is not meeting with congressional approval. Already the decision has been made in the house to enlarge the air forces to a greater extent than requested by the president and Secretary of Defense Forrestal. Undoubtedly some of the requests made by the president for the other branches of our national defense will be reduced. Many members of congress are opposed to appropriating huge sums for military practically obsolete, on the basis that, once national defense should be the most modern available.

Your humble reporter has been named as chairman of a special subcommittee of the house to investigate the activities of the central intelligence agency in connection with the recent revolution in Cuba, and to learn whether that agency had warned the secretary of state and the American delegation to the Pan American Conference at Bogota that such a bloody uprising was impending. Admiral Hillebrand, head of the C. I. A., last Thursday testified before the subcommittee that his operatives had warned the state department, as early as Jan. 2, that Communist plot to disrupt the conference was in the making. In succeeding weeks further information as to the Communist maneuvers was obtained. On March 23, one week before the conference opened, it was learned the plot provided for going as far as "molesting" the persons of the American delegates. However, an advance agent of the secretary of state would not permit the intelligence operative to transmit a warning message to Washington.

Secretary of State Marshall and other Americans were forced to barricade themselves to escape injury during the revolt. The American delegation could not contact this country for many long hours. Once communications were restored, the secretary of state was quoted as saying he had no advance information the revolution was brewing. Thursday evening, following Admiral Hillebrand's disclosures, the secretary of state issued another statement saying he knew about the impending revolt all the time but refused to be intimidated by it. Whether other members of the American delegation, whose lives were endangered, were warned by the secretary of state, and whether he apprised the delegates of the other countries of the dangers involved is not known. President Truman, to whom all intelligence reports are supposed to be submitted, stated in a press interview last week that he had no advance knowledge of the revolution.

The trails of the Hollywood radicals, who were cited for contempt of congress because they refused to answer the questions of the congressional committee of the Communist party, were under way. John Howard Lawson is the first defendant to be tried. It is being predicted here in Washington that all will be convicted and will face heavy fines and jail sentences.

The house committee on un-American activities has announced it has been investigating for some time the connection of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the former president, with the admission into this country during the war of Mrs. Earl Browder, a Communist and former Red leader in Russia, who is also the wife of Earl Browder, onetime head of the Communist party in the United States. It is claimed Mrs. Roosevelt put pressure on the state department and other agencies of the government to force the admission of Mrs. Browder into the United States, notwithstanding the provisions of the immigration laws.

Prediction: The popular song next January will be Missouri, Here I Come."
